Rationale for Sabbaticals

Sabbatical leaves are a form of faculty development involving relief from University duties for a semester or an academic year. When the University grants a sabbatical, it is making an investment in the development of its human resources and, in fact, its most critical resource. What the University expects to receive in return is a better, more productive faculty member.

The Faculty Research Committee (FRC) members look for a well-

The project should be concrete and well-defined.
